RE: MUR 4434
Daniel M. Doyle

Dear Mr. Tragos:

This is to follow up on our telephone conversation of September 15, 1999 regarding the above-captioned matter.

As we discussed, your client, Daniel M. Doyle, received notification of the Commission's reason to believe findings and proposed conciliation agreement on September 7, 1999. Accordingly, a response to the Commission's reason to believe findings would normally be due on September 22, 1999. However, you requested a 20-day extension of time in which to respond to the Commission's actions, which would extend the due date for any response until October 12, 1999. You also have indicated a desire on behalf of your client to resolve this matter quickly and to address all of the Commission's concerns in one conciliation agreement.

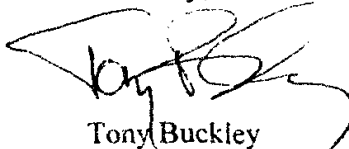

As outlined in Chairman Scott Thomas' July 28, 1999 letter, in order to address all of the Commission's concerns at once, we must require your client to toll application of the statute of limitations. Enclosed is a form which you may sign on behalf of your client, which tolls application of the statute of limitations for 90 days. Please sign and forward the form to me as soon as possible. At that time, please make the request for an extension of time to respond to the Commission's actions in writing and we will expeditiously respond to that request. Absent a signed tolling agreement, this Office will be required to immediately address the 1994 election cycle activity, and subsequently address the 1996 election cycle activity.

Thank you for your cooperation. If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,
